Tennis star supports EP Grain venture

JOHN Fitzgerald came to Cummins on Tuesday, July 22 with FREE Eyre to talk about his belief in the joint venture EP Grain and his life experiences with local farmers.

Mr Fitzgerald said it was "great to be involved in this new venture".

"Logic tells me it can be very beneficial," he said.

"The more I heard about it the more I was encouraged to believe how good of product it could be."

Mr Fitzgerald answered questions about his career and said he was very pleased to be home.

"Its terrific to come home and see people I know ... this is God's country."

Darryl Wakelin, who was also expected to speak, was unable to make it to the meeting.

FARMERS: Bevan Mickan, Richard Strauss and Bob Blacker.

FREE EYRE: Grant Nelligan and Greg Moroney.
