

Capital needed to invest in future

PEOPLE in farming communities are encouraged to attend the launch of the FREE Eyre Capital Raising program in their district.

FREE Eyre's chief executive officer Mark Rodda will talk about the success of the FREE Eyre investments - EP Grain and EP Storage - and Mark Rodda.

Sports

the significant opportunities that FREE Eyre believes it must invest in for the future of Eyre Peninsula.

People can go to the Wudinna Tele Centre for an 8am to 10am program or the Port Kenny Club from 7.30pm today.

On Friday Free Eyre will be at the Piednipie Sports Club between 8am and 10am and the Ceduna Foreshore Hotel Motel from 7.30pm. Meetings were also held in Port Lincoln, Tumbly Bay, Ungarra Lock and Kimba and Cleve earlier this week. FREE Eyre believes it must be involved in a new port, grain value adding and a host of other critical investments. "With new capital and new shareholders, FREE Eyre can continue its strong growth, build its business base, take control, add value to the EP enterprises," Mr Rodda said. To register people can visit the website www.free-eyre.com.au or email info@free-eyre.com.au

FREE Eyre Capital Raising Program

- Wudinna Tele Centre, Thursday March 25, 8am to 10am
- Port Kenny Sports Club, Thursday March 25, 7.30pm
- Piednipie Sports Club, Friday March 26, 8am to 10am
- Ceduna Foreshore Hotel Motel, Friday March 26, 7.30pm